Mr. Jack Crawley
Television Station WMTV
615 Forward Drive
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Jack:

I wish to thank you for the kind, courteous way you handled our telecasts during the week of our Campaign for Christ. I felt the burden of such great exposure and so many programs during one week, but I found the matter easily handled under your guidance and with your help.

Everywhere we turned during the week, people had seen our telecasts; and our job, therefore, was made much less difficult. I wish to thank you and Station WMTV for providing us such cooperative service and, above all, for allowing us to use the facilities of your well-known and highly popular station as the means through which we conveyed our message to the entire area of Madison, Wisconsin.

Thank you for your cooperation. It was a pleasure to work with you.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
